No one is available in RD, if we wait until Wednesday.

Sending the invite for Tuesday at 9 am now.

Hey, we're trying to review this before Wednesday, which is why the BCs requested a stand alone meeting on Tuesday. They're also not inviting a larger group to participate in the review—only seniors. Otherwise, yes, we could do this on Wednesday in PRP.

Works for me – I'm not sure if you'll need to be the one to schedule PRP though as I'm not sure if other documents will be submitted to PRP for next week.

Also, for future reference – please use the entire common name as opposed to an abbreviation in email subjects, especially in emails sent to members of other divisions (as in the 12/9 meeting). It helps to keep things organized (I have incoming emails with "aldicarb" in the subject line sent to my aldicarb folder but "aldi" ends up in my inbox) & reduce any confusion.

Thanks so much!
Jeana

Will do! Working on it now. Looks like TJ is out, beginning on 12/21. If we get the doc to him by COB, Thursday, would that be okay with you? He can participate by e-review. I can get my act together and review that morning. Jeana, does a COB deadline of 12/17 work for you?

I will send the invite for a “PRP” on Tuesday morning, once I know that you both are okay with this plan.

Update: Jonathan is out of the office this week, and TJ will be back tomorrow. Kelly and Derek both go on leave this Friday. Sounds like Jonathan and TJ will be our reviewers—they just don’t know it yet. ☺ Rebecca would you like to set up a review meeting with everyone for Tuesday?

Hey Rebecca, thanks for the comments.

Yes, Friday 12/18 is the target date to send to seniors for review. This hasn’t been scheduled yet. I’m waiting until COB today to hear back from the Seniors re: who’s available.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

And re: points to clarify, yes, these are SIAB focused but your review will be incredibly helpful!

This is awesome, Lindsey! Thank you so much ☺! I feel like I was there, suffering with you!

I have responded in red text to some of your outline below.
